Duty to	Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Se	ervice of Summany

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain puries to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. A defendent located in the United States who, after being polified of an action and asked by a plaintiff located in the United States to waive service of summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failute to sign and roturn the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the complaint is unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a count that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of the summons retains all defenses and objections (except any tolating to the summons or to the service of the summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought,

A defendant who waives service must within the time specified on the waiver form serve on the plaintiff a stromey (or unrepresented plaintiff) a response to the complaint and must also file a signed copy of the response with the court. If the answer or motion is not served within this time, a default judgment may be taken against that defendant. By wairing service, a defendant is allowed more time to answer than if the summons had been actually served when the request for waiver of service was received.
